

Circular From: ALCO 2026/0034Date: 4 September 2026

Rare Honour for ALCO in Singapore

ALCO in Singapore was selected by Singapore Shipping Association (“SSA”) to moderate the technical and legal discourse on various safety issues and human factors in shipping for its annual event on shipping for global stakeholders.

ALCO, through its subsidiary ALCO Insurance Brokers Pte. Ltd, is a member of SSA. The panel of experts in the event comprised of CEOs of an insurance company, crew management and head of Lloyd Register in Singapore. The same event was attended by selected audiences comprising of heads of ship owners and operators, ship managers, insurance companies, classifications societies, crew managers from ASEAN, China, India, European Union, UK and other countries. The audience participated vigorously during the discussion moderated by ALCO.

ALCO nominated Dr. Capt. Vivek Jain for the event, also a formidable maritime and arbitration lawyer, only available to act for clients of ALCO, to represent it for this well-renowned annual event that is also blessed by Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (“MPA”). He successfully moderated the discourse for the event, and a few photographs are attached to this article. ALCO and its nominated representative were highly praised by delegates to the event for successfully moderating the discussion for the event. Lots of LinkedIn posts have been generated on the event due to its immense success and some posts on the event were uploaded by SSA.

ALCO has a formidable presence in Singapore with the clients and has a good reputation for assisting clients, which either operates from Singapore or have offices in Singapore. ALCO through its subsidiary has a big office in Central Business District in a renowned shipping building by name of International Plaza and is staffed with both English and Mandarin speaking legally qualified professionals, who are available to provide quick assistance to the clients of Andrew Liu in Singapore and around. ALCO has many offices in Asia-Pacific and all act as one when comes to assisting its clients.

Andrew Liu &